

Certification as a Clinical Animal Behaviourist

Supervised experience requirements: Level Three - Full consultation

This form is a record of candidate achievement. Sections 1, 2 and 3 to be completed by the Supervisor after candidate performance has been assessed.

Name of candidate:

Ref:

SECTION 1: Case history

Species observed:

Behavioural diagnosis:

Other details:

SECTION 2: Skills demonstrated / assessed

Supervisor to initial the relevant assessment box(es) to indicate satisfactory achievement of the skill and method by which the skill was assessed. Specific comments on the candidate's performance in each can also be detailed below, if required.

Critically evaluate the owner/pet relationship in the development of the problem and it's subsequent treatment

Verbal	Case report

Demonstrate an ability to extract relevant information about the background to the case and presenting signs from the client and other relevant individuals

Verbal	Case report

Critically evaluate the quality of the evidence provided about the behaviour of the animal

Verbal	Case report

Critically evaluate the evidence for and against competing explanations of the behaviour

Verbal	Case report

Demonstrate appropriate action that is likely to address areas of concern or deficiency when information relevant to the identification and treatment of the behaviour is lacking

Verbal	Case report

Devise an appropriately structured treatment regime and follow-up based upon the information collected

Verbal	Case report

Explain the rationale behind the recommended treatment and how it will address the problems identified

Verbal	Case report

Demonstrate an understanding the impact of medical history on behaviour

Verbal	Case report

